Spoken Word Elder Scott Eastin
"What must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Closing Hymn Living for Jesus CH #605

Benediction Priest James Andrews

Proverbs 31. L7

Who can find women like these?
For their worth is far above rubies—
and there are many right here among us.

They care for their homes and those within them,
drawing daily from the love the Lord gives.

There are those who raise children—
working, teaching, sacrificing, doing the best they can with the Lord's help.

There are new mothers, pouring themselves out,
and single mothers, carrying much alone—
yet strengthened day by day.

There are those who have raised their families and now guide the next generation with wisdom and love.

There are women who,
though they did not bear children,
have chosen to nurture and raise them.

There are those who feel they have little left to give,
yet their wisdom and quiet strength
are worth more than a bucket full of rubies.

There are teachers, caregivers, and nurses
who have given their lives in service.

There are women in the workplace,
shining the light of Christ
while keeping all things moving and steady.

There are those who care for many children—
in classrooms, churches, and families—
and those whose hearts extend to all of God’s creation, whose children have fur and paws.

There are those who feed the hungry,
clothe the needy, and give generously—
serving in quiet, sacrificial ways.

There are those who plan, organize,
and carry the work forward,
shining the light of Christ in all they do.

There are prayer warriors who lift others up.
There are musicians and artists
who glorify God with their gifts.

There are women who have walked through grief and fire
and come forth with grace and love,
walking others through to the other side.

There are those who rise early and serve with joyful hands,
filling both tables and hearts.

What do all these women have in common?

They are women after God’s own heart—
Mothers in Zion,
the heartbeat of God’s Kingdom come on earth.

Whether seen or unseen,
their love has taken root and will bear fruit.

Many women have lived with virtue—
and together, they shine among us.

*Let us honor the fruit of their lives,
for their love is seen among us.*

To Know God and To Make Him Known

Jesus has taught us to love the Lord our God. Matthew 22:36-39

³⁶ Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

³⁷ This is the first and great commandment.

³⁸ And the second is like unto it; Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

³⁹ On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The mission of the Living Hope Restoration Branch of the Church of Jesus Christ is to come know the Lord more fully through prayer and fasting, worship and reading of the word. We are then called to spread the Gospel to all who do not know Him.
